Afternoon Summer Camp immediately following the International Languages summer program from 11:30 am – 5:00 pm. Children will take part in a variety of activities such as: arts and crafts, sports, board games, aqua games, and social activities such as (dance and/or drama). Throughout the day, they will rotate through each activity with breaks for snacks and lunch. Camp instruction will be in English. Parents are required to provide snacks and lunch. The ratio of children to instructor will be 12:1 maximum. Safety rules will be discussed to start each day. Bullying or negative criticism from any child will not be tolerated. Our staff will address all issues and will attempt to rectify the problem immediately. This program is suitable for boys and girls going into JK to Grade 8.
